LARGE CROWDS

Flock to the Sam Jones Meeting Day and Night.

The Sermon Last Night Unusually Impressive—Special Services For Children and Colored People.

Weather considered, the attendance at the Sam Jones meeting was surprisingly large last night. There were very few seats unoccupied. The magnificence of the man is marvelous. There were people there last night who had come miles through rain, mud, sleet and snow. Possibly there were never got together before in Clarksville such a miscellaneous assortment of people as flock to these meetings. The good and the bad, the rich and the poor alike are drawn by his influence.

At the conclusion of the song service last night, prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Cowan. Mr. Jones then made the following announcement: Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, there will be a special children's service; on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, there will be a special service for colored people.

He said he had found that the special children's service generally was the most profitable. He wanted the front seats reserved especially for the little ones. He wanted it understood that at the colored people's meeting they were to have the whole building if necessary. It was his rule to hold one meeting, at least, wherever he went for their benefit. He wished this appointment noted abroad among them as much as possible. Of the progress of the meeting thus far Mr. Jones said that none in five years had moved so much to his aid. In his opinion it had begun and shaped itself for a great victory. He used the figure of a pin and a carbuncle to illustrate; the former ripens in a night, bursts and disappears. Not so with the deep-rooted carbuncle, whose movements are slow, but finally it gets there with both feet. Just so in religious movements. If they are not bottomed on stern conviction and thought they won't last long. He thought the great trouble in Clarksville was a want of conviction. For this the preachers were more or less to blame. By authority are they commanded to speak the words of truth and soberness, regardless of this or that one's opinion. Every man sees a thing for himself. My opinion of a thing doesn't change it. Truth is truth, and the best thing a man can do is to yield to it. To-night's meeting, I believe, will be the best of all. God is always with them who approach him in the right spirit.

Beginning his sermon proper, the evangelist took the same text he had for the previous night—"Turn you to the strong hold, you prisoners of hope; even to-day do I declare I will render double unto you."—Zein. 9:22. Explaining that he had taken off at a tangent the night before in the relation of an incident (reiterating it) he proceeded scripturally and methodically to deliver a very powerful sermon. Mr. Jones was unusually solemn in his utterances last night, appealing directly to men's consciences, omitting his usual blustering tactics. Tender, persuasive, eloquent, he appeared deeply moved.

Said he: "How hard it is for men to believe that God will keep His word. Twenty years ago I was a wrecked and ruined man. Quitting sin and joining the North Georgia Conference, God has since found for me 1,000 homes in place of the one I left; 1,000 friends in every State of the Union in place of those at home; 1,000 mothers as good and kind as the sainted one in heaven; 1,000 fathers as true and tender as the one long passed to his reward. Religion pays 1,000 fold in this life and is a passport to the one to come. Religion demands of us nothing but that which we can afford to give up; nothing that will not make us better for giving it up; it fits us for all emergencies of life. If I had a thousand hearts I would give them all to God; if a thousand lives I would give them all to Him. The twenty-four years of my wicked life were not worth a day in God's courts. Thank God for Christianity! It brings to man his greatest joys."

The remainder of the sermon was occupied with contrasting the difference between three classes of persons with hope and three classes without hope. Invoking the Spirit of God to go before and strike conviction into men's hearts, the preacher held up to self-scrutiny the individual case of every man and woman present so that he or she had no difficulty in deciding to which of the two classes they belonged. Terminating his remarks, he extended the usual invitation to those who were tired of sin to come forward and give him their hands. To this a great many responded, many of whom were men of hoary heads, some of them with tears streaming from their eyes.

THIS MORNING.

The usually large crowd assembled at the warehouse this morning to hear Sam Jones.

The evangelist took his text from the book of Joshua—"Choose you this day whom you will serve, but as for me and my house we will serve the Lord." Common sense is the most uncommon thing in the world. But common sense and religion make a man a Christian unless the man so desires. Every man must make a deliberate and an intellectual choice. There are two choices. God and heaven is one, and the devil and hell is the other. Some people try to take the whole lump. When they try this they don't get anything but the devil and his angels. When you hear a fellow say: "If I am to be saved, all right, but if I haint, I haint," God has already made provision for his wife and infants. Some of you old lazy farmers would like to exchange places with God. Men can make nubbins, but it takes God and men both to make a big ear of corn. Religion is the most sensible, most reasonable thing in the world. Whenever a little lawyer or doctor begins to get skeptical his ears are the biggest part of him. His ears are worth ninety-five cents and the rest of the animal is worth a nickel. If you want to be good God will help you. If you want to be mean the devil will help you. The preacher said he was talking common sense, and his illustrations were striking.

The sermon was a commingling of sense, sentiment, pathos and humor. Rev. Geo. Stewart preached at 3 o'clock this afternoon on the subject of "Home."

HORNBEAKE, TENN., Nov. 20, 1890. I take great pleasure in recommending your most wonderful Lemon Chill Tonic to all who may have cause to use a medicine of that nature. My daughter had the chills for twelve months and had tried many remedies, and all to no purpose, until she tried your Lemon Chill Tonic, of which one-third of a bottle cured her, and now she is well and healthy. Would say, I hear it often spoken of, and have yet to hear of a single case in which it failed. J. W. HAYS.

He Ratified.

Jno. F. Coats walked down to his business house this morning literally wrapped up in a Cincinnati Enquirer. People did not know what he meant until they saw the rosters on the paper. He was ratifying, and is the happiest Democrat in the county.

Yes, We Mean You!

Have you a tired feeling, appetite poor and nothing tastes right to you? Have you a dizzy feeling when stooping over or a bad taste in your mouth? If so you are bilious and a 50c. bottle of Lemon Chill Tonic will make you feel like another person, brings back your appetite and you wonder why you haven't tried it long ago. Price 50c. Pleasant as lemonade. For sale and guaranteed by Clarksville Drug Co., Edwin Thomas, Jr., Manager.

Too Much of a Risk.

It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by Owen & Moore, Druggists.

A Cure for Rheumatism.

Dr. P. A. Skinner, of Texarkana, Ark., is an enthusiast in the praise of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He used it for rheumatism, and says: "I found it to be a most excellent local remedy." For sale by Owen & Moore, Druggists.

Corn on the stalk is an emblem of plenty. A corn on the toe is an emblem of woe.—Remove them quickly by using "C. C. C. Certain Corn Cure," the great remedy for corns and bunions. Sold by Owen & Moore.

THREE HUNDRED VOTES

Is About the Number the Democrats Now Claim.

Even Ohio Joins the Popular Song and Goes Democratic—The Thing Unanimous.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.]

CINCINNATI, Nov. 10.—Latest returns, counting Ohio as Democratic, give Cleveland 303 electoral votes, Harrison 109, Weaver 82.

California is conceded Democratic.

North and South Dakota are doubtful, but look Republican.

Indiana is Democratic by not less than 7,000.

Ohio is claimed by the Democrats by a plurality of 1,200, and nothing now to dispute. Each party has ten congressmen. Minnesota's vote is close, both parties claiming Nebraska. Returns are slow, but Harrison and Weaver are claiming the State. The State of Iowa estimated Republican not less than 20,000. In Indiana Johnson in Sixth and Wrought in the Ninth Congressional districts re-elected. First, Tenth and Eleventh districts are in doubt. Balance Democratic.

Worth Knowing.

Many thousand people have found a friend in Aunt Fanny's Health Restorer.

If you have never used this great specific for the prevailing malady of the age, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Costiveness, Nervous Exhaustion, Nervous Prostration, Sleeplessness and all diseases arising from derangement of the stomach, liver and kidneys, we would be pleased to give you a package of this great nerve tonic free of charge. A Politician in Pieces.

(Special Correspondence.) NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3.—Governor Nichols relates with much relish his peculiar experience in a hotel. During the late unpleasantness the governor, then general, had the misfortune to lose his right leg, having parted company with his right arm in an accident several years before the war.

During the last campaign he was stumping Mississippi and stopped over night at a hotel in Natchez. "Send a man to my room," said the governor, and in a few moments a typical southern negro made his appearance. The disrobing process had been continued for some time when the governor commanded, "Take off my arm."

"Sah!" said the astonished negro, his wool fairly rising. "Take off my arm," repeated the governor, and Sambo edged suspiciously toward the couch, assisting in removing the artificial member.

Laying it upon the table he gave the limb a long and careful examination, but was suddenly interrupted by the command, "Take off my leg." For a moment he gazed at the reclining soldier and then started for the door.

It required innumerable threats, explanations and promises to get the darky near the bed, but finally a large portion of the governor lay upon the table, and there was a mischievous twinkle in his eyes.

"Come here, Sambo," he shouted, leaning forward. "Come here and unscrew my head."

The darky waited no longer, but with one wild rush he dashed from the room, and bursting into the office shouted, "Oh, Massa Charles! there's a man in 48 who is coming to piece!" A crowd followed to 48, and the governor "set 'em up." G. C. R.

A DRUNKEN MAN'S ACT.

He Swallows a Live Turtle on a Wage.

ANDERSON, Ind., Nov. 10.—William Larkin, an employee of the Haugh Karts steel mill, swallowed a live turtle Tuesday night as the result of a wager. Larkin, in company with several other men, had been drinking quite freely after the polls closed. Just as a glass of beer was drawn for him one of his companions picked up the turtle, which was about the size of a silver half dollar, and dropped it into the glass, at the same time daring Larkin to drink it. To the surprise of everyone he raised the glass and drained its contents, turtle and all. He cried out in his agony that the reptile was scratching his stomach out. A physician was called and administered an emetic, but as yet the animal has not been gotten out of his stomach. Unless it can be brought out soon, fatal results will follow.

SOCIALIST DEMONSTRATION.

The Police Called Out to Suppress a Mob.

GHEENT, Nov. 10.—There was a violent demonstration of socialists here yesterday. They paraded the streets singing revolutionary songs and hooting the aristocrats. The disorder became so great that the police were forced to charge upon the crowd with drawn swords and revolvers.

They divided the mob, which became infuriated, smashing fences and benches along the March Vendred, and turning upon the police, attacked them. The police fired over the heads of the crowd from the statue of Philip Artwilde. At length mounted troops succeeded in awing the mob. The riot was not quelled, however, until many were injured. They were attended in adjoining private houses. The ringleaders of the mob were arrested.

Cave Discovered.

HARRISONBURG, Va., Nov. 10.—A cave was discovered about six miles east of Harrisonburg near the village of Keoketown, Saturday evening. It has not been fully explored yet, but it is said to rival the Luray caverns in size and grottoes and in beauty. The cave was discovered while blasting for rock. Twenty-four rooms have been found without the aid of pick or shovel. Persons from the neighborhood are flocking to see it. Specimens of stalactites were brought into town Monday.

The Great Cotton Strike.

MANCHESTER, Nov. 10.—The strike among the cotton operatives here has thrown 44,000 persons out of employment. A proposal has been made on the exchange to put on half time all the mills in north and northeast Lancashire, in order to assist the federation to fight the operatives. Some of the weaving sheds at Burnley are now working on short time, while others are closed. The stock of yarns has become exhausted as a result of the strike.

Up Goes Wages.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 10.—The finance committee of the Lake Carriers' association has advanced the wages of keepers, firemen, wheelmen, lookouts, deck hands and oilers on steamers and second mates, seamen and boys on schooners and consort. The wages of firemen, wheelmen, lookouts, oilers and seamen were advanced twenty-five cents a day and keepers, deck hands and boys $5 a month. The new schedule goes into effect Thursday next.

Election Mobs.

LIBERT, Nov. 10.—A serious election riot occurred in the province of Bruto, in which it is reported several persons were killed. A number of fishermen became engaged in a dispute with some laborers regarding the merits of different candidates. One of the contestants drew a knife and stabbed his opponent. Instantly other knives were drawn and used. It is said that five or six men were stabbed, but this report has not yet been verified.

Pauper Gets a Fortune.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 10.—Information has just been received here from California that Barney Dunning, an inmate of the city poor farm here, has fallen heir to an estate valued at $300,000. The fortune was bequeathed to Dunning by his brother William, who went to California in 1849, accumulated large wealth and recently died, leaving the estate to his brother Barney, of this city.

New Orleans Strikers.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 10.—There is no apparent change in the strike situation. The Amalgamated council met at noon, but for what purpose has not yet been ascertained. The cutting off of the supply of gas and threatening to cut off the electric lights and leave the city in complete darkness has turned the tide of sympathy against the strikers. So far there are no new developments.

Lucas Not Dying.

VIRGINIA, Nov. 10.—The reports that Pauline Lucas, the well known opera singer, is dying are entirely without foundation. Her physician states that she has had an attack of jaundice, but that there is no cause whatever for anxiety regarding her condition.

Eskimo Babe Dead.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Columbia Isabella Susan Manak, the Eskimo born a week ago on the world's fair grounds, died Tuesday. She had been very fragile since her birth. The other babe that came in the Esquimaux village a few days later, is strong and well.

Young Hunter Killed.

SEYMOUR, Ind., Nov. 10.—Mr. John Rinehart, a young man aged eighteen years, while out hunting was shot and instantly killed. He was the son of one of our prominent citizens, and was a young man well liked by everybody.

Skull Crushed with a Brick.

VINCENNES, Ind., Nov. 10.—In a fight at Monroe City, this county, Monday night, Will Hewitt struck Eph Alton on the head with a brick, mashing in his skull. Alton will die. Whisky caused the trouble.

Touched a Live Wire.

LOGAN, O., Nov. 10.—William Kitchener, an employe at the electric light works, accidentally placed his hand on a wire at the works Wednesday morning, and was instantly killed.

Duke of Marlborough Dead.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—The Duke of Marlborough was found dead in bed at Blenheim palace Wednesday morning.

STATE MATTERS.

What Elections Show For The Democrats.

They Have Swept the State Like a Cyclone and Now They Are Happy.

The American this morning summed up the result in Tennessee as follows:

Returns from the State are coming in rather slow. Cleveland will get between 45,000 and 50,000 majority. Turney's vote will fall short of Cleveland about 12,000 in the State from present indications. Thirty counties out of ninety-seven give him a plurality over Winstead of 24,700. The counties yet to hear from on a conservative estimate will increase this plurality 11,885, making a total in the State of 32,000.

The Legislature is largely Democratic. Sixty-six out of the ninety-nine members of the lower branch of the Legislature will be surely Democratic, and there is a probability that this number will be increased half a dozen or more. In the Senate twenty-five out of thirty-three members will be Democratic. In Montgomery county indications seem to be that the Third party legislative candidates have been elected. It does not seem that there will be any People's party men from any other part of the State.

CONGRESSMEN.

First district—Alf. Taylor, Rep., re-elected; if Republican votes are legal.

Second district—John C. Houk, Rep., re-elected.

Third district—H. C. Snodgrass, Dem., re-elected.

Fourth district—Benton McMillin, Dem., re-elected.

Fifth district—Jas. D. Richardson, Dem., re-elected.

Sixth district—J. E. Washington, Dem., re-elected.

Seventh district—N. N. Cox, Dem., re-elected.

Eighth district—B. A. Enloe, Dem., re-elected.

Ninth district—J. C. McDearmon, Dem., re-elected.

Tenth district—Josiah Patterson, Dem., re-elected.

SENATE SENATORS.

In the Second district Jno. B. Harr was elected by nearly 500 majority. The indications are that Hon. W. L. Ledgerwood was elected from Knox county, but his majority cannot be given.

Hamilton county elects R. M. Barton by over 600 majority.

Hon. Frank Dibrell had a Republican and a Populist to defeat. Mr. Dibrell estimates his majority at 1,600.

Joseph C. Taylor was overwhelmingly elected in the Tenth Senatorial district.

Senator T. J. Alexander was returned from the Eleventh district by a safe majority.

B. G. Adcock will represent the Twelfth district by the grace of nearly 800 majority.

S. M. Young thinks his majority in the Thirteenth district will be over 1,100.

The Fourteenth district returns Speaker W. C. Dismukes, and his majority is a good one.

The returns from Montgomery and Robertson counties are not sufficient to warrant the American to make any estimate on the race between Savage and Slaughter.

Eli T. Morris and Hamp J. Cheney have a big majority in Davidson county.

Park Marshall, of Franklin, estimates his majority at 1,700.

Hon. W. G. Whitthorne, of Columbia, is elected by over 2,000 votes.

Thos. J. Wood, of Bedford, is safely elected.

The majority of Hon. James D. Tillman, of Lincoln, will reach nearly 2,000 votes.

John P. Montague, of Giles, is elected.

Hon. Hardin Leech, of Dickson county, wires that his majority is 1,800.

Dr. T. C. Wyatt, of Humphreys, thinks his majority will be about 1,800.

H. C. Townes, of Huntington, is safely elected.

E. L. Bullock, of Jackson, enters the Senate with nearly 3,000 majority.

A. J. Coats, of Bolivar, gets there with a large majority.

John E. Wells, of Obion, is elected. Gibson and Crockett counties give Hon. Thomas E. Harwood over 2,000 majority.

Blair Pierson is safely elected in Thirtieth district.

W. T. Shelton is estimated to have been elected by 1,000 majority from Fayette and Tipton.

Shelby county gives a rousing majority to Cesar Weatherford and Thomas F. Tobin.

This gives twenty-five out of thirty-three members of the next Senate to the Democrats with seven districts to hear from.

The Legislature, so far as heard from, stands 66 Democratic members against 33 Republicans and populists combined.
